JCC DANCE COMPANY

These performance groups dance in various venues around the area such as malls, nursing homes, competitions, and arenas. The Dance Company is for children who are dedicated to dancing and motivated to excel in their art. It is an extension of a child's initial dance training. Students are trained in multiple styles of dance, participate in rigorous rehearsals and perform in front of diverse audiences, allowing them many opportunities to grow as well-rounded dancers. Participation in Dance Company is by teacher recommendations and auditions only.

Contact Jacqueline Lopresti at 201.569.7900 ext. 437, jlopresti@jccotp.org for company requirements and details.

DRAMATIC ARTS

Kids and Youth Theatre

JCC Kids and Youth Theatre teaches acting and musical theater skills, with all students performing in a fully staged musical with sets, costumes, and lighting! All students will be cast in the show! Our performance companies offer children and teens the opportunity to shine in an environment of teamwork, with a focus on creativity and experiences that build self-confidence. Extra rehearsals will be added leading up to the show. Students in Kids and Youth Theatre will have an opportunity to take a Broadway workshop and see a Broadway show together! *additional fee for trip to NYC.

Performances are open and welcome to the community! Visit www.jccotp.org/shows to purchase tickets. Tickets: $15 Member/$18 Public general seating.

*All Youth Theatre students are required to add a technique class (ie: musical theater, improv acting, power of expression or dance class) to further enhance the student's skill in all aspects of musical theater performance.

JCC KIDS THEATRE

Teen Acting

Teen Acting is for creative students looking to develop their acting skills. This class will focus on acting technique through acting exercises, ensemble work, monologues, and scene work. Students will use self-exploration to expand their performance ranges and take on more challenging roles with confidence. Students will learn to make their characters more believable and bring real feelings to their performances. The class will culminate in a small performance for families during class time.

Grades 5-8

Wed 9/18-1/15 6-7 pm $395/$495
 Wed 9/18-6/4 6-7 pm $800/$995

The Power of Expression

Your voice matters. In a safe and inviting space, students will learn how to express thoughts and feelings through creative outlets such as monologues, scenes or songs. The instructor, along with a Social Work intern will provide a process for feelings to be shared and then transformed into pieces of performance art. Students will have the option to share these pieces with an audience.

Grades 7-12
